Vilnius University (VU) Culture Center together with the international project "CAMINO: Twenty years of cultural growth in a united Europe" invites you to celebrate Europe Day at VU! The program of May 9th is full of events dedicated to celebrating and reviewing the two decades of Lithuania's membership in the European Union (EU), reflecting on the role of current youth and students in a free Europe, and promoting cultural cooperation between European universities. Everyone events free of charge

The Europe Day program will start with the CAMINO project (flashmob) "Ode to Joy". This gathering is a moment of unity, when the youth of the seven countries that joined the European Union in 2004, the partners of this project, will come together with the help of the Internet in a spectacle that crosses borders and connects cultures. Using the universal language of music and dance, participants from each nation will demonstrate unique interpretations of the European anthem "Ode to Joy". This spectacle will not only

Exhibition on April 15. has already been opened in the European Parliament in Brussels. "CAMINO" project manager in Lithuania, VU Culture Center project manager Sonata Adomaitienė says: "The ten countries that in 2004 joined the EU, students, commemorating the 20th anniversary of membership, talk about the Europe they see with their eyes and perceive in their thoughts, about the identity, lifestyle and diversity of the nations in its family. Students share their hopes and dreams with us in their captured moments - without stereotypes or prejudices, they reveal what Europe is for them - freedom, equality, freedom of movement, cultural diversity, national heritage and many other things that create a colorful kaleidoscope that we call the European dream ."

The opening of the exhibition will take place in the gallery of the Rectorate's corridor of the VU central building (Universiteto St. 3) at 16.30:XNUMX p.m.

The main highlight of the European Day is the VU Kinetic Theater movement play "Hommo in Maxima" (dir. Andrius Pulkauninkas) premiere. The performance is intended to mark Lithuania's 20 years of membership in the EU in a theatrical form and to review the development of Lithuanian society during these two decades. "Hommo in Maxima" is an experiment that aims to show how the perception of another's love, attachment, security and meaning of life will change after Lithuania becomes a full member of the EU family.

The premiere starts at 18.00:3. VU Theater Hall, University St. XNUMX.

Do Lithuanians really live better than Spaniards or Portuguese?

Yes. I think they live better than the Germans

I think that is true

It's possible, but we haven't overtaken the Spanish yet

No, nonsense

I don't care
