

The European day celebration

„ODE TO JOY“

May 9th, 2024, Tartu University

12.00-14.00 „EUROOPA PÄEV“ (European Day) for students, Tartu University Delta house (1 floor)

- 20 years from enlargement of European Union – experiences and memories (meeting point organized by UT museum)
- Presentation of project CAMINO
- 13.30 presentation of dance video „Ode to Joy“ (featuring UT ESN students)

13.00-18.30 CONFERENCE „MEIE VALIK JA TAGAJÄRJED: 20 AASTAT EUROOPA LIIDUS“ [„Our choice and it's Consequences: 20 years in European Union“], Tartu University Museum White Hall, organised by Skytte Institute and UT museum

More information and registration on conference webpage. During the conference:

- Book presentation „Minu Eesti, minu Euroopa 20 aastat hiljem“ [My Estonia, my Europe 20 years later], each participant will receive the book
- Exhibition opening „Inspired by Europe“ (project CAMINO)

18.30-19.00 WALKING TOUR ON EXHIBITION „AKEN TOOMEMÄE POOLE“ [„Window towards Toome Hill“], Toome Hill

Poetry exhibition about connections in poetry and visual arts, text and place. Exhibition presents texts of different European poets in Estonian, Finnish, Latvian, Russian languages.

Exhibition was curated by assistant professor of Estonian literature Mart Velsker and coordinated by University Tartu Museum. Opened on May 6th and is situated on the way from museum to downtown.

19.00-20.00 CONCERT „TÄHENDAMISSÕNA MOONIST“ [„Parable of the Moon“], Eller Music School

Adam Strug and band (Poland) are presenting music composed to the texts of Czesław Miłosz. Concert is organized by the Adam Mickiewicz Institute and marks Europe Day. The project is funded by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage of the Republic of Poland. Partners: Embassy of the Republic of Poland, Representation of the European Commission in Estonia, European Capital of Culture Tartu 2024, University of Tartu's Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies.